

WHAT ARE YOUR GO TO VISITS FOR PRIMARY ART IN SURREY?

As teachers it can be tricky to find 'tried and tested' locations for school visits. Here are a few potential Arts visits recommended by schools in Surrey.

If you have a favourite school Arts visit in Surrey, then please get in contact with Culture Box Surrey. We would love to hear about your Arts visits ideas with a view to creating a list of 'go to' visits.

THE LIGHTBOX, WOKING

The Lightbox offer school visits from EYFS through to higher education. For primary aged children they offer art sessions on materials, the art of story telling, portraits and bespoke sessions for schools. Their workshops can be used to fulfil Artsmark criteria.

WATTS GALLERY, COMPTON

Watts Gallery offer various tours and creative workshops in their 'Artists' Village'. Their school group visits are set to have resumed last month. They are also currently continuing to offer live, online sessions throughout 2021 - 2022.

THE JURORS CHAIRS, RUNNYMEDE

This artwork in by Hew Locke features twelve bronze chairs. Each chair allows the audience to reflect on different pieces of history. The title of this section links to an article on the National Trust website which details each of the twelve chairs. This artwork has been used by a local junior school as a stimulus for a Key Stage 2 sequence of learning in art, history, English and many other subject areas

RHS GARDEN WISLEY, WISLEY

Offering visits for primary and secondary schools with workshops in their stunning, new learning facility.

PAINSHILL PARK, COBHAM

A truly beautiful setting in Surrey offering workshops for EYFS, Key Stage 1 and Key Stage 2. I took my Year 2 class to Painshill to take part in a story walk, it was an excellent visit.
